A HARE HARE.

In all probability the last service of song that Rev. Mr. Watson can conduct for the Young Men's Christian association before he leaves the city to take up other work will be held in the Young Men's Christian association building tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The service conducted by Mr. Watson from time to time have always been largely attended and greatly enjoyed, and it is expected that the service tomorrow afternoon will be even larger and better than any yet held.

LIVELY CONGRATES.
Don't forget the basket social given by the Relief Corps next Monday evening. There will be recitations by Mrs. Dr. Farley, Mrs. Sandefer, Anna and Nina Bozel, songs by Mrs. Clark, Miss Pearl Reed, some dancing by Topeka and Sister Chio, more recitations by Mrs. Lawrence, song by male quartette. A large cake baked by Mrs. J. P. Allen with a ring in it to be disposed of. Program free to all. Lots of fun, plenty to eat, providing you buy a basket with a ladies name in it.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

Building Report for the Past Month.

To the Editor of the Eagle.
Again we ask you to express our gratitude for the following gifts towards the building fund: From Willing Workers of West Side Presbyterian church, Miss Fowler, leader, one brick box, $2.50; from postoffice box, $1.00; from old postoffice box, $1.00. Our house has nearly reached its destination upon our College Hill property, and we would be glad of help, as we have not enough money in hand to meet all necessary repairs and changes. Those having pledged money at annual meeting we hope will find it convenient to meet the same very soon.

In behalf of the board,
Mrs. E. J. Foster, President,
318 Waco avenue.

LABOR DAY.

Messrs. J. C. Clark, W. M. Brown, R. J. Maloney, W. H. Whitehead and W. S. Dix, composing the committee on arrangements for the Labor Day picnic Monday, are in the city and busy preparing the program of entertainment and otherwise preparing for the reception of the immense crowd of railroad men and other laborers and their families, who will take part in the demonstrations on that day.

It is expected that this will be the greatest Labor demonstration ever made in the city, as railroad men from every part of the state will be here and bring their families with them. The committee is expending at least well into the thousands of dollars in making its arrangements in accordance with these figures.

The labor organizations of the city will all join in the demonstrations, and will participate in the parade and picnic. The programme of entertainment and order of parade, etc., will be given in tomorrow morning's paper.

HER TRUST BETRAYED.

Mrs. Dr. Oatly, who lives about five miles west of the city on Maple street, was in the city yesterday and reports that a robbery occurred at her home early yesterday morning.

Upon arising yesterday morning and going to the stable for the rig in which she intended to come to the city, she noticed fresh tracks which showed that a two wheeled cart had been driven into the barn lot and the horse unhitched from it and hitched to her property, the cart tied behind and all driven away toward the west. Upon further investigation she found that one full set of harness and a part of another was also missing.

On account of having no one to send the tracks were not followed and Mrs. Oatly hurried to the city to inform the authorities, after which she went to McKenzie's carriage shop to get a cart she had left there sometime ago to be repaired but she was told that it had been taken away several days ago by a man who said she had sent for it. This man was described as being about 5 feet 4 inches in height, heavy set, slightly over 40 years of age, and was a stout, heavy man when last seen. He is well known and it is thought will not be hard to locate.

REVEREND SHIPPEN'S RECEPTION.

Reverend Eugene R. Shippen, pastor of the Unitarian church, of this city, returned from Washington, D. C., on the Rock Island last evening and a reception was tendered him by the King's Daughters, which consists of the ladies of his church, at the home of Doctor and Mrs. C. C. Furley at 331 East Douglas avenue. Reverend Shippen occupied his father's pulpit in Washington, during two months of his absence from this city and the remainder of his time was spent with his mother at Plymouth, Mass. He says he is heartily glad to be home again and the reception tendered him last night spoke much plainer than can be said of how his friends here feel toward him.

The beautiful rooms of the Furley home which were thrown open about 8 o'clock were artistically decorated with costly paintings, flowers, etc., and the attendance, which numbered over 300 persons, was so large that the rooms were filled to overflowing and the decorations could not be admired.

The following impromptu program furnished a part of the evening's entertainment:

Musical recitation—Misses Jennie Hammond and Alice Goldberg.

Vocal duets—Misses Steffen and Orpha Back.

Vocal duets—Misses Jessier and Mrs. Hubert Child.

Instrumental duets—Misses Jessier and Galoway.

Instrumental duets—Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Furley.

Songs—Male quartette—Messrs. Shippen, Hull, Shields and Cushman.

Refreshment table served and a general good time was enjoyed by all. In fact it was the grand opening of the season for that society and was certainly a success, much to the honor of the host and hostess. The evening's program ended by the male quartette singing up one of the popular society young ladies of the city and singing a beautiful good night song for her through the telephone.

A gentleman was out in the country yesterday and states that at no time since a residence of fifteen years in this country can he remember the average yield in wheat and other products being as large and abundant as this year. The farmers are very hopeful and believe, by present indications, that the present year will be a record year for this great season will come next year. Fall plowing is well under way.

Mrs. Judge Ruggles and party of ladies who went to Chingawasa last Thursday for a three day visit did not return until Thursday of this week. The resort was so delightful that they could not tear themselves away sooner.

Messrs. Henry Schmitzer and H. T. Kenner have returned from a trip over to this and adjoining counties. They report business much improved and that collections are better than they have been for some years. The people grow happier as the money flows freer.

The police are having considerable trouble of late by people tying teams to the vehicles used on the street crossings. They say that some of the city people are worse than farmers to do this. It will be watched by the officers and stopped.

Charles V. Borman brought to the city several ears of the Mammoth 90-day corn and placed it in the Board of Trade rooms. This is probably the largest 90-day corn grown in the country. Mr. Borman expects to be able to furnish the corn for seed next season.

General Manager E. St. John, General Superintendent C. H. Hubbell, of the Rock Island, were in the city yesterday. They went on south over the line and will return tomorrow and take the Missouri Pacific across to Hutchinson.

T. C. Singleton returned yesterday from Winfield where he has been attending the fair. He and others report that this year's fair was much superior to that of former years at that place, and they attribute it to the fact of there being such an abundance of fruits and other farm products. They say that the district fair to be held here was the principle subject of conversation.

A fellow named Dalton was arrested about 10 o'clock last night by Special Policemen Williams, and the report was spread that one of the notorious gang had been slipped up on. The report created some stir in detective circles until it was corrected. The fellow was arrested for drunkenness. He claims to be a cousin of the outlaws. He is a half witted fellow, and has been in one of the city hospitals for several months.

Misses Florence D. and Sarah W. Foster, daughters of E. J. Foster, queenware merchant of the city leave for Indianapolis on Monday, the former to fill the place of stenographer in R. O. Hawkins law office, the latter to pursue an extended course in the sciences under Prof. Crowl, who is called to the chair of physics in the high school. They have city and whose departure was noticed in the EAGLE. Very many friends regret losing these good people.

Ed Vail is in Chicago this week. Ed is the worst bull crank in Wichita, and his friends will smile audibly when they read the following clipping from the Infer-Ocean's report of last Wednesday's game between the Chicago and New York teams: "A man from Wichita, Kan., after hastily enquiring which side was ahead, arose in unuttered box and made a noise with his mouth like a cottage organ falling through an apartment house." Ed is evidently enjoying himself.

There was a very pleasant tea party given by Miss Loretta Williams at her home, No. 332 North Fern avenue, West Side, Thursday afternoon, at which some of her most intimate friends were present. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent by games, music, and other pastimes. Refreshments were served at 5 o'clock. Among those present were Misses Beatrice Ferguson, Blanch Barrett, Susie Campbell, Edna Ramsey, Lulu Dewey, Jessie Williams and Mary Russell.

A picnic party went to Little River yesterday. They were the Misses Lila Benn, Mabel Millison, Winifred Parker, Blanche Guthrie, Flora Caswell, Lucy Johnnie, Messrs. Bert Sisson, Erwin Taft, John Parkinson, Herbert Levy, Will Still and Amos McClure. They had a very good time and found plenty of wild turkeys, some fish—they did not say who caught them for them. Some discussion arose amongst the boys as to who had the prettiest girl, but was compromised by each voting the prize to his own. All came home adorned in golden rods and sunflowers, with an armful of botanical specimens to be studied by couples, and recited at high school this winter.

Last evening a two ladies and a gentleman were walking on Third street they observed a few feet in advance of them, a group of men around a cow lying very still with a man sitting upon her hips. One of the ladies who is very sympathetic ran forward and said: "Is the horse dead?" The man replied: "The cow is dead." The scene was a weird, solemn one, with the flashes of electric light playing amid the shadows of the cottonwoods and falling upon the countenance of the cow which still retained the all-gone expression as she held as she passed from earth away forever. The attitude of the mourners, or the grave-diggers, all combined with the inquiry of the lady was an impressive and poetical moment, yet amidst such there was laughter.
